The Arc's Club Orientation

(Offline: 22nd November 2022, Online: 26th November 2022)

The Club Orientation for The Arc, the Data Science club of IGDTUW was held in the Seminar Hall on the 22nd of November in physical mode and on the 26th of November in online mode. The Club orientation was a huge success with students from all years and branches joining in. The orientation was hosted by all Club leads and the club presidents. To give the students a taste of Data Science, attendees were encouraged to add their favorite songs on a Spotify playlist and at the end of the session, the club members performed various data analysis tasks on the data collected from the students and answering questions like the “Who is the most popular artist?” and “Which songs are people playing the most?”.
